1. Human Trafficking Beijing +15 Lessons Learned

Date: March 1, 2010

Time: 9:00 am to 10:15 am

Place: Conference room "C" Second floor, North Lawn Temporary Building, United Nations HQ, NYC NY 10017

Since the 1990's before the phrase "human trafficking" was coined, an international awareness of the 21st Century's global phenomenon of human trafficking, affecting every nation on earth, slowly moved into today's vernacular. In the last ten years, this awareness has grown by leaps and bounds. Today, we recognize this phenomenon as a "Shared Global Shame."

2. Violence Against the Working Mother

Date: March 1, 2010

Time: 10:30 am to 11:30 am

Place: Conference room "C" Second floor, North Lawn Temporary Building, United Nations HQ, NYC NY 10017

The status of women as working mothers in the public sphere and the different forms of violence and pressure they bear affecting their mental and reproductive health, is explored as a reflection that is indicative that women globally suffer from their upward mobility in the hierarchy of functions they perform. We explore a case study from Morocco and observations from the USA. The objective is to reveal the suffering of the working- mother, including the status of widowed women.
