

H.E. Mr. Abdalmahmood Mohamad (Sudan)

H.E. Mr. Abdalmahmood Abdalhaleem Mohamad is the Permanent Representative of Sudan to the United Nations.

Prior to his latest assignment, he was Ambassador to India, Sri Lanka and Nepal, based in New Delhi, where he was the Dean of the African and Arab Group of Ambassadors and High Commissioners accredited to India. He was sent to Afghanistan as Special Envoy in May 2003.

From 1997 to 1999, he was Director of Technical and Economic Cooperation, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, having previously been Director of the Africa Department from 1995. Mr. Mohamad was named Presidential Envoy to Somalia in 1994.

The veteran diplomat worked as Deputy Head of Mission in Addis Ababa (1990-1995) where he handled, in addition to bilateral relations with Ethiopia, matters of conflict resolution and economic cooperation with the Organization of African Unity and the United Nations Economic Commission for Africa. Beginning his career at the Foreign Ministry in 1975, his first overseas posting was to Riyadh, Saudi Arabia, where he worked from 1987 to 1989.

Mr. Mohamad received a bachelor's degree in political science from the University of Khartoum in 1975 and a master's degree in international relations from Ohio University, United States, in 1978.